Matt –

CDK intends to seek a protective order. We have reviewed your March 21 letter and do not believe that it addresses the core objections that we have raised concerning the Dealership Class Plaintiffs' interrogatories. We also disagree with your interpretation of the Court's rulings and comments made in open court regarding written discovery, including interrogatories, served after the May 25, 2018 deadline. It appears to us that this is a "go/no-go" type of discovery issue (to use the Court's terminology) such that additional meet-and-confers would not be productive.

Regards,
Matt

Matt,

I have not heard from you on this issue since I sent my response letter last Thursday. Please inform us, as soon as possible, whether CDK intends to respond to Dealership Plaintiffs' counterclaim-related interrogatories, whether CDK seeks a further meet-and-confer call on this issue, or whether CDK intends to file a motion on this issue.

Regards,
Matt K.
